“ I was remembering my wedding after my ex recently passed away. After all these years, I found her here. Sadly, I will never get to thank her. So maybe her family will read this and learn that Heather organized my sweet wedding at her house in 1972. I was too young to fully appreciate how much she did for us and especially me. She was so kind and thoughtful always. Lauren Alexander (Cross)

“ Heather and I first met in PWC Schools' Special Education Department when I became a school social worker there. She trained me in the responsibilities of that job and our friendship began. Prior to our introduction, Heather had created the Comprehensive Child Study Program (CCS) in PWC Schools. She was truly committed to the successful development and education of all children and created a collaborative program among the schools, families, and community agencies in Prince William County that has continued for many years after her retirement. Due to Heather's belief in and commitment to that collaborative process, many children and their families have benefitted. Fortunately, Heather trained me in the process of CCS. Heather always had time to listen to different ideas, to brainstorm difficult situations, and to offer support and care for all of her team members when situations could be overwhelming. She was the same with her friends and her colleagues. I was very fortunate that our paths crossed for so many years and she became a very dear friend.

Love you Heather and will miss you terribly - peace!

“ Heather was a close friend. I met Heather when working as a School Psychologist in Prince William County. We worked closely together advocating for children. As we worked together we became close friends. We maintained our friendship for years after Heather retired. My children regarded Heather as a Grandmother. They called her Granti Heather. She was my daughter, Sarah June's God Mother. The world lost a good one. Heather was a light and love to all that knew her. My family and I will miss her terribly. Rest in Peace my dear friend. I love and miss you more than you can imagine.
