“ I remember Mrs. Small from church. She was very good friends with my Granny and made the best food at ladies' meetings and potluck dinners. I have a cookbook that she contributed several recipes to and think of her often when baking bread. She will be missed. She was also very sweet and such a wonderful example of a Christian lady and friend.

“ My husband and I were blessed to have made a friend in Helen.
She knew her Bible well and was a contributor to our Sunday mornings together as we ministered at Pine Meadow Assisted Living. We came to love her and are sad to hear of her passing. She shared her precious memories with us. Most of all, Helen exhibited great faith in the saving power of the work Jesus did on the cross.
Our sympathy and prayers to the family, but we can rejoice that she is now with her Savior. Bernie & Becky Foster
