“ I remember all the good times at the Miller home when I was a teenager and Mr. Miller was always so kind to me. Equally kind was his wife. Growing up spending time with his daughter Diane and the twins allowed many great memories to be made. He was an awesome father and he loved his family very much. He will be missed by many as he was a staple in our community. Rest in peace Mr. Miller. . . fly high. My prayers are with the whole entire family. All My love to all of the girls and Randy, Kim Price
