

Howard William Miller

July 31, 1965 - September 12, 2025

The staff of Heishman Funeral Home/Valley Funeral Service sends condolences to the family of Mr. Howard William Miller.

Howard William Miller, 60, of Luray, passed away Friday, September 12, 2025, at Winchester Medical Center. A Celebration of Life will be held, Saturday, October 18 at 1:00 p.m. at New Market Voice Tabernacle. Pastor Charles Clinedinst and Assistant Pastor Steven Clinedinst will officiate.

Mr. Miller was born July 31, 1965, in Harrisonburg, son of the late George (Giggs) Richard Miller and Anna Belle Rodgers Miller. He was a graduate of Turner Ashby High School and employed with Riddleberger Brothers for 23 years. He was an active member of New Market Voice Tabernacle where he was an assistant pastor. His love and service for our Lord and savior was inspiring. He encouraged so many to run the race toward Christ by his testimony, his smiling face, his guidance and his love for the Lord. His Christian life was a true walk with our Lord. As a result of his generous spirit, pleasant and loving personality, he was loved by many. He taught Sunday school for the young adults. He was a counselor to friends, co-workers, family and to anyone that was fortunate to cross his path. His influence will forever remain in the lives of all those who knew him. He became a father for so many of our young people.

He loved hunting, fishing and camping with the church body. In the last years, he enjoyed driving on the mountains and back roads. He loved the beauty of God's creation.

Howard is survived by his wife, Lisha Keeney Miller whom he married on May 5, 2001; daughters, Rachel Comer and spouse Stephen and Cheyenne Elizabeth Coleman and spouse Dustin all of Mauzy; two sisters, Ethel Jane Cabbage of Mt. Crawford and Tammy Shank of Grottoes; brother, Harry Miller of Harrisonburg; seven grandchildren, Madison Comer, Stephen Josiah Comer, MacKenzie Comer, Hannah Comer, Samuel Comer, Jackson Coleman and Ethan Coleman and numerous nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by sisters, Geneva Miller and Nina Bishop; and brothers, Marvin Miller and George Richard Miller II.
