“ Jamie will be greatly missed. I was always impressed by his calm, intelligence, expertise, knowledge, capacity to explain something potentially complex in a very easy way so it becomes easily understandable.

His contribution to Bowman Andros was huge and the last project he led, with the building of our new factory as been qualified by our customers as a « world class » facility, unique in North America.

The main feeling i would have for Jamie is Respect. This is without doubt shared by our colleagues in the US and beyond. A special thoughts from the whole Fruinov team, in France, with which Jamie worked a lot the past 2 years.

All my thoughts and condolences to Sarah and his family and friends.

*Warm Regards,
Julien*

“ Jamie,

Tonight I'm going to serve us 2 glasses of whiskey, one for you and one for me.

And I'm going to repeat to you what I said to you while holding your right hand on Sunday, March 6, at your place.

You can be extremely proud of your work, which has been so important to you for so long.

You can be very proud of the tremendous impact you have had first for Bowman Apple Products and then for Bowman Andros Products. You can be very proud of the ingredient factory you have built in Mount Jackson; She Is Yours.

We will do our best to continue in the footsteps you leave. We will do so with kindness, honesty and integrity, three values dear to your heart.

"If I have seen further," Isaac Newton wrote in a 1675 letter to fellow scientist Robert Hooke, "it is by standing on the shoulders of giants.". You are a Giant.

With Love My Friend,

God Bless You,

Thierry
