

Jamie Claire Weaver (Wynne)

October 3, 1949 - April 3, 2025

The staff of Heishman Funeral Home/Valley Funeral Service sends condolences to the family of Jamie Claire Weaver (Wynne).

Jamie Claire Weaver (Wynne), 75, of Mount Jackson, Virginia, passed on to Heaven on April 3, 2025, with her husband holding her hand. A beloved wife, mother, and grandmother, Jamie always saw the best in everyone and everything.

Born on October 3, 1949, in Baltimore, MD, Jamie grew up in a tight-knit family. Her father, James, passed away when she was a young teen, and she had fond memories of her grandmother, Helen, stepping in to help her mother, Mary, and to fill the void for herself and her sister, Cecile. She often reminisced about her time spent with Helen, and credited her with teaching her everything she knew about cooking and sewing.

Jamie graduated from The University of Maryland with a degree in Art Education, then obtained a Master's degree from Loyola College. She was everyone's favorite art teacher at Frank Hebron-Harman Elementary School, encouraging her students to explore, create, and always do their best. She left her position to raise her daughter, but she never stopped teaching, serving, and caring for the people in her life, particularly children.

On April 20, 1984, she married the love of her life, Eldridge Weaver. They built a loving, tender, adventurous life together for nearly 41 years. Whether in Mitchellville, MD, Huntingtown, MD, or Mount Jackson, VA—through good times and bad—they lived their lives together as soulmates.

Jamie loved Jesus and the local church with an undimnable passion, spending time each day praying for herself and others, and sacrificing untold hours serving her church family with joy. She was always willing to help, and she particularly loved making others feel welcome and special.

Jamie is survived by her husband, Eldridge, her daughter, Meredith Lindsay Peterson, and her grandchildren, Lyndon Peterson, Kieran Peterson, Rowan Peterson, and Callum Peterson. She was preceded in death by her sister, Cecile Boccuto, and her parents, James and Mary Wynne.

A celebration of Jamie's life will be held on April 9 at 7:00 p.m., at Dynamic Life Praise and Worship Center in Front Royal, with a meal following the service.
