Jane was born in Okmulgee, Oklahoma on September 4, 1931. As a young adult she moved to Northern Va. where she went on to serve in the US government. There she met and married Wayne T. “ Jane was one of those people that you instantly felt drawn to. She had a beautiful, thoughtful and calming presence. Her talent inspired me and I was always happy to come across her artwork on display. One Sunday, while sitting in the pew behind her, I watched as she quickly sketched on her bulletin. To me it was a masterpiece, but Jane was most modest when I admitted I had been watching over her shoulder. Such an amazing and talented person. I will miss her. Prayers of peace and comfort for her family and friends.

“ Internet condolences to Wayne and the family. I met Jane in 1980 and we have been friends ever since. Jane was a mentor, a friend, and an inspiration in my life demonstrating how to be an independent woman, a supportive wife, a loving mother, and a service to your community. Jane always remembered to send a card every birthday and wedding anniversary. She was present at every major life event. I will miss her so.

“ I have a letter that was sent to me by Jane back in 2015. It stays on my desk on the top a pile of things to do. Each time I rearrange that pile I always put the letter on top. Over the years I have read the letter several times. Reading it today I wish I had read it every day! She knew I was struggling and had found a reading she thought would be helpful so she wrote a note and enclosed the reading. Just thinking about the love and compassion that moved her to do this is amazing in itself. She was there at a time in my life .. and the lives of many others .. that I was looking for help. And there she was with her love and compassion. She will forever be in my heart.
