“ I was very lucky to have her in my life as a teenager. When my mom (her sister Kate) died when I was 15, I would write her long letters telling her about my adventures and she would write back. She came to my wedding in 1970 and that meant so much to me. I have recently found some pictures from our family picnics at Uncle Toms. How the years have flown by but the memories are still there. The one thing that stands out is how she always looked like a "lady"...pretty hair-do, matching shoes and pocketbooks, and such lovely dresses.
