“ Jerry was surely a outdoorsman. Loved to fish, hunt, boating and hunting for mushrooms. He was an all down to earth brother. Enjoyed his weekend stays with me. That was his and my time together to chat bout past and present times. At his stay at Warren he enjoyed putting puzzles together with other residents. He will definitely be missed by all. Scotty his sister.

“ I met Jerry at The Warren in Woodstock. I always liked him. He had a kind and quiet demeanor. We spoke about his riding his horse up on the mountain with his friends and camping and hunting. He was a true gentleman. I'm so sorry he has left us and I'll miss him. I'm just glad he is out of pain now. Will remember him forever.
