“ I have many fond memories of visiting Uncle Galen and Aunt Jessie's home as a child. As always back then , adults talked and children went outside and played and so children played. My dad, Clarence told many stories growing up with him and Galen and as always during that time children grew up fast and did a mans work early. Aunt Jessie will be missed at family reunions and I hope her family finds comfort in the Lord during this time of memories John and Tonya Dellinger
