

Joan Bolton Holler

April 25, 1926 - May 1, 2017

Joan Bolton Holler, 91, of Edinburg, passed away Monday, May 1, 2017 at INOVA in Leesburg. A memorial service will be held at a later date.

Mrs. Holler was born April 25, 1926 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, daughter of the late John and Eva Darnell Botwright. She was a former Vice President at Richmond Hill Savings Bank in New York. She was a member of St. John United Methodist Church in Edinburg and an avid supporter of the Humane Society. She was married to the late Howard Irving Holler.

She is survived by her son, John Holler of California, four grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Humane Society, P.O. Box 173, Woodstock, Virginia 22664.

Tribute Wall

“ Joan Bolton Holler

January 30, 2023 at 03:03 AM

“ Joan Bolton Holler

January 30, 2023 at 12:44 AM

“ Joan was a beautiful lady. We met her & Howie via Barbara & Jack Walden when they were looking for a home in the Valley. They were with us for picnics on the Shenandoah River. Joan was a faithful volunteer at Craven Hall Assisted Living in Woodstock. Faye & Tip Pangle

Faye Pangle - May 05, 2017 at 08:51 PM