“ To the family of Joanne: Although I never met your mother, I loved her. I too, am one of Jehovah's Witnesses. We are a world-wide brotherhood. I'm sure through the years she talked about her faith. One of the joys that is held out for us all is the fact that Jesus gave us a hope if we die--that is found at John 5:28, and 29. He told us about the resurrection hope. And then the apostle John told us about another hope in Revelation 21:4. This is the promise that death itself will be done away with. We have such a wonderful God to give us such a hope for the future. Christian Love, Sandi Cave -- North Harrisonburg Congregation, Harrisonburg, VA
