

John Scott Stephens

July 9, 2013

John Scott Stephens 69 of Woodstock lost his battle with cancer on Sunday, July 7, 2013 at his home. John was born October 28, 1943 in Logan, West Virginia, the son of the late C.J. and Orpha Stephens. He was a graduate of Logan High school and attended Marshall University. He retired after 37 years as an electrical engineer for Fairfax County, Virginia. Surviving are his daughter, Anita Denty, and three sisters, Mary M. Miller of Pineville, W.Va., Gladys (Sug) Gostovich of Raceland, Ky., and Deborah Maples of Cedartown, Ga., two granddaughters, Tiffany Rose Denty and Lindsey Renee Denty both of Woodbridge, Va. and numerous nieces and nephews. Visitation will be Wednesday, July 10 from 6 to 8 pm and a funeral service on Thursday, July 11, 11:00 am at the Dellinger Funeral Home, Woodstock, Virginia.

Tribute Wall

DJ

“ We are so sorry about John's passing. With God's help you will be able to keep all the wonderful times in your thoughts and will always have him in your heart. I lived on Crooked Creek and rode the bus and went to school with John. He was a great fellow. Our love and prayers that you will get through this ok David and Darlene

David and Darlene Boyd Jones - July 16, 2013 at 12:00 AM

RW

“ Anita and Patty..We are so sorry to learn of John's passing..We grew up together and it seems so sad that he was the first of us to go..We remember you guys with all good thoughts..Give us a call when you can..You are in our hopes and prayers...Alma and RJ

R J and Alma Wilson - July 10, 2013 at 12:00 AM

DB

“ Sorry to hear about Johnny's death. We grew up in Logan County together and he was a great friend. I spent a few nights at his house, which are still memorable. Anything I can do for John's family, please let me know. Sincerely, David

David Bias - July 09, 2013 at 12:00 AM