“ I do not recall when I met Jon: it may have been sixteen or seventeen years ago. However that may be, I am sure of one thing-- I did not know him long enough.

I talked with Jon for hours on end over the years and found him not only a brilliant talker but an attentive listener.

Grieved by the loss of his parents and cats and brought low by physical disability and constant pain, Jon was saddened by his inability to work. He described in detail his work at Aileen in the systems department and his work with DK as a millwright. Although he surely knew I was largely ignorant of what he was recalling, Jon had a gift for never talking down to me.

Rest in peace, my friend.

“ I was one of Jon's bartenders at the Moose Lodge #575 and a friend. He and I had some great conversations over the years and his sudden passing has shocked all that knew him. He was a good man and will be missed by me and all that knew him. My deepest condolences to his family and friends. GOD speed Jon.

“ I feel like I've know Jon for many years than I have. One of the closest friends I have. Cranky but humorous. He has a great and good heart and I will miss him dearly. R.I.P Jon.
