“ Joseph Charles Kuchta, Jr. was a caring, honorable, and honest man. He was a loving and dedicated father, despite all the things which tried to distract him. He is still with his family in their hearts and memories. No matter what he endured, he was always a shining moral man, He will always be in my heart and memories, and he will guide me in my life decisions. His family and children were his life, regardless of what issues dogged him at times. His life as a Father was one of many major turning points. I will always be guided by his honor.
