“ I remember Aunt Joycie as always being a hard worker and a real “pioneer woman”. She tended that huge garden behind the house, stocked the cellar, helped to feed the farm animals, got up early to help with milking the cows when the milk was sold, cooked, sewed, and she could drive. Aunt Joycie helped our family tremendously, and I remember her being very kind to everyone. I imagine her now up in Heaven with Uncle June.

“ Aunt Joyce did so much for Brenda, Debbie, and me growing up. She even drove my mom to the hospital for me to be born. I remember watching her make cakes, working in the garden, canning, and her family recipe for dressing balls. She was such a good lady. She will be missed.
