“ *Dear Ken, Ken, Jr. , Nancy, Kim, and Family, I pray that during this sensitive time your hearts and lives will be drawn to the grace of God who wants to forgive us of all sin, cleanse us from all sin, and empower us to live a pure life that is pleasing in his sight. The last words I heard Judy say in Walmart the last time I saw Ken and her, were words of encouragement that I could make it in a goal of education that I was assured God himself had set for me in my years growing older, that though I was somewhat unsure of myself, yet I was endeavoring to express faith in God's will for me to fulfill something from within for the sake of others in my latter years. Nancy did the same not long before that in Walmart when I happened to see her there, with words "You'll make it." Of course, some times, we do not really know that, except for faith until that certain thing is fulfilled and it becomes reality. Soon, we too will be leaving it all behind, and it will only be the marvelous grace of God working within us to do only those things that are pleasing in God's sight that will assure us that we will have an eternal home in Heaven forevermore. Let us all humble ourselves in godly repentance before the Lord because He has made us; given us all things including our very breath; died for us so that we could be forgiven and cleansed from all our sins; and will empower us to live a righteous life made worthy through the working of the Holy Spirit by enabling us to live out the truth. Let us love God with a whole heart and love one another as ourselves to the glory of our Eternal God. We can make it!--But only with Jesus. I John 15.
