“ JUDY was my roommate in the hospital recently and she had to be the most popular lady on the ward. She made my stay fun. I hated to leave when they checked me out. She was transferred to Peak Resources and my son and I visited her there. She was blessed with a great family that I enjoyed so much. Her sister Lucy was so faithful to be by her side almost the entire time and when she wasn't, Judy would say, "wonder when Lucy will get here." My preacher, Wayne Sinquefield, enjoyed prayed with her and got to be a favorite of hers. She was a loving person and I miss her.
