“ For Karen and Dave's and the girls' former church in Vienna, VA, Emmaus United Church of Christ, I send you our deepest condolences. I learned about Karen's passing by one of my former work colleagues who lives in Woodstock and she sent me the notice in the paper when she read that Karen was a former member of Emmaus, my friend knowing that was my church. Thinking of you all and what you brought to Emmaus back in the 1980's and early 1990's. Former church friends always in our memories. God bless.

“ My love and prayers to Dave, Heather and Heidi and Karen's brothers; David and Tom. I was very proud to be able to have Karen as a "sister" through my marriage to David Mearns. She was a true, genuine person, always easily spreading smiles to others. I loved the love of nature she showed through her gardening and love for birds. Earth will be losing a beautiful person but heaven is acquiring a true angel.

“ Karen always had positive influences on others. Will never forget her introducing the spaghetti squash that she had raised to me. When she came into Yarns For Ewe Shop it was like a ray of sunshine... I was blessed to talk with her several weeks ago in Walmart always upbeat. Thinking of you and your great loss.

“ "Listen, I will tell you a mystery! We will not all die, but we will all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed. For this perishable body must put on imperishability, and this mortal body must put on immortality. When this perishable body puts on imperishability, and this mortal body puts on immortality, then the saying that is written will be fulfilled: 'Death has been swallowed up in victory. Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?' " 1 Corinthians 15:51-55 May the good news of the resurrection and the hope of being reunited bring comfort during your time of grief.

“ Our condolences to you David, Heather, and Heidi. Karen and I shared many cups of coffee back in Fairfax as neighbors. Heather and Heidi were so cute and little at that time. Our greatest memory is of our deceased daughter Jennifer who used to play Santa Claus to the Timer children when everyone was at church. We will treasure those memories of our families.
