“ We are saddened at the loss of our good neighbor, Katrine. I enjoyed my talks with her and swapping garden secrets and stories of her grandfather and the surrounding area. I had asked her, as our next-door expert, to walk me through the details of raising chickens this coming spring. I will miss that opportunity to get to know her better and I will miss seeing her on her 4-wheeler riding out to check out the chickens and other 'critters' for a long time to come. Our sincere condolences to the family.
