“ My prayers and condolences to Kristie's family. I had the great fortune of working down the hall from her for nearly 3 years. There was something very special about Kristie's interaction with others. I could be consumed in my work, stressing a deadline, but if Kristie happened by, the stress somehow lifted. Her interest, her sweet expressions and voice--they were totally disarming. That will remain alive and well in my memory. God bless Kristie.
