“ I knew Landon since grade school at Toms Brook, as I was also born in 1950 ... and I knew Landon over all those years to not be the kind of guy to walk away from anything, troubling or not -- he'd look it straight in the face, and take care of business. I always respected him, and what he stood for. Randy Bauserman (formerly of Maurertown)

“ We spent a lot of time together old man, you were always there when I was having a bad day, and you'd call I knew right away that you would have me laughing and happy soon after I answered. I loved listening to your stories about your jobs, and about the kids growing up, and the places you have been. I am gonna miss you a whole lot, and please don't worry about Alexis or Sammy girl, they are in really good hands. Love you a bunch ❤️

PS

“ I remember as a kid when I would see you, you'd always ask for a hug then give me a one dollar bill, but ONLY if you got a hug. Of course I always did cause I wanted my dollar! If you knew Uncle Landon you knew he was definitely one of a kind. He was someone who never failed to make anyone laugh, that I will miss. I never thought I'd say so, but I'll miss you calling my Charlie dog ugly and saying he needed dog therapy to cope lol. I can still hear you now... and it still makes me laugh. Rest In Peace Uncle Landon, love you always❤️ Give grandma a hug for me, love Paige
