

Landon LaVern Weatherholtz

November 16, 1937 - December 30, 2016

Landon LaVern Weatherholtz.,79, of Quicksburg, passed away Friday, December 30, 2016 at Sentara RMH Medical Center in Harrisonburg. He was born November 16, 1937 in Forestville,VA and was the son of the late James Franklin and Nellie Susan (White) Weatherholtz.

Landon graduated from New Market High School and was a Veteran of the U.S. Army and a long time member of Fraternal Order of Eagles in New Market, where he was in charge of weekly bingo. He was a huckster in the Washington D.C. area for 36 years. He was affectionately known as the "egg man". He worked for the Shenandoah County Public Schools as a bus driver for almost 50 years. He was the owner and operator of the Quicksburg Grocery. For many years, Landon enjoyed raccoon and bear hunting. His later years, he enjoyed fishing with family and talking with buddies at McDonalds. One of his favorite past times was raising chickens and pigeons with his grandson.

Landon is survived by his daughter, Kimberly Dawn Burner and husband Darren of Quicksburg; one son, Kevin Dail Weatherholtz and wife Krysta of Strasburg; one brother, Charles "Butch" Weatherholtz of Mt. Jackson; four grandchildren, Mason Weatherholtz, Matthew "Rafe" Burner, Brady Weatherholtz and Caitlin Burner.

A celebration of life will be held 11:00 a.m. Wednesday, January 4, 2017 at the Valley Funeral Service's Chapel with Pastor Larry Rinard officiating. Burial will follow in Forestville Cemetery. The family will receive friends Tuesday from 6-8 at the funeral home.
