“ He wanted to pass at home. Whenever we suggested the doctor, hospital, or a nursing home, Dad would shake his head and say the only way he'd leave the house was with Heishman Funeral Home. That was just who he was funny, ornery, and always full of mischievous laughter. The kids lovingly called him 'Santa Dad' because he looked just like Santa. He filled our lives with laughter, taught us life's lessons and reminded us to keep smiling. We will forever love and cherish the memories he made with us.

I had the pleasure of caring for Mr. May in Rehab after his hospital stay. He also also had something smart to say that had laughing. Sorry for your loss. Prayers go out to his family.
