“ Larry was a very dear and special friend. Since we moved to Tennessee 9 years ago, I am so sorry to say that we lost touch, however, whenever I was in we always stopped by the see Larry and Carolyn. He always and a smile and a kind word. He never just sat around, he was always into something, butchering deer, working garden or cleaning up . We will remember all the many great times we had and the wonderful friend that he was to us. God Bless you Larry - you will be truly missed. Jerry & Pat Pangle
