“ Poppop & Grandma, Today, I have been thinking about you and grandma. Its hard sometimes for me to understand life and how it works, but there is one thing I can understand and that is that you all are missed very much by me! I think I miss you most because of your leading direction in paths in life I shall take, or your constant love and care you showed for me. I miss your touch, your smell, poppops hilarious laugh, the fun times and the bad times. Its just something that can never be replaced. I am not much on the religious thing about seeing you guys again, but I do hope its true and we again will reunite in the "Afterlife". I love both of you greatly and just wish you could be here to see how big the kids are getting. With Love, Your Grandson

“ My deepest sympathy to your family. I was saddened to hear of your passing. I do know beyond a shadow of a doubt, that you are finally happy & at peace, because you are with the one you loved so much, Barb (Babs). I know the two of you and so many others are definitely holding down the fort in (heaven) until some day we can all join you. My dear friend Larry, may you rest in peace! Love you, Susan R.
