“ Dear Deborah, Joseph and Carolyn, we were saddened to hear about the loss of Crockett. We considered him to be a very good friend and pastor when we were at Faith Lutheran in Fort Valley. We have valued the friendship of your family over the years and know how special your mother and father are to you and also to many of us. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you. Fondly, Wayne, Cecilia, Kristi & Kelley

“ Dear Deborah, Carolyn and Joseph and family, Norbert and I send our loving sympathy to you upon the death of your dad, Crockett. He was a helpful friend and mentor to me when I served at Pleasant View, Staunton and I enjoyed catching up with him at conference (Shenandoah) and VA Synod meetings. Also, his gifts of theology books helped me tremendously as I prepared sermons over the years. I treasure my memories of him (and your mother) and pray that you are comforted also by your memories and in the sure and certain hope of the resurrection. Rev. Lyla Harold

“ I had the privilege of caring for Pastor Huddle several years back. Such a kind, gentle and genuine man. His smile was huge and bright when my baby/toddler son and I would come through the door on one of our many visits to where he lived. Our condolences.

“ I was so sorry to learn of your Dad's passing. Your Mom and Dad both meant a great deal to my family. I'm sorry not to be able to attend his funeral. Assuming golf is an acceptable pass-time in the "Great Hereafter", as I assume it must, I'm sure Crockett and Jack had a tee-time Tuesday morning.
