“ Lisa Mosser? On Wednesday when it rained 10,000 angels cried for your family and friends because they know how much we will miss you now that you are gone. Yesterday we laid you in your final resting place my baby girl. I know you are up in heaven and looking down on us. I hope you know the wonderful send off we gave you. We will all make sure Payton and Jackson are always taken care of. They will always know what a wonderful mother and person you were, how huge your heart was, and how very very much you loved them. One day Dylan will know the same. You will forever be in our hearts and always be missed. My heart aches knowing that I can't see your beautiful smile, hear your voice anymore, or be given that special hug your always gave. When you hugged me or anyone else, they could feel the love in your heart. I am glad your pain is gone now and know you are in a better place. I love you baby girl!

“ Lisa it is so hard to believe that you are gone. I will miss you. It is so sad to think that you are so young and you had the rest of your life to live. You were a ray of sunshine and always the life of the party. So kind and considerate just a perfect angel in heaven. I know God must of had better plans for you but it is still so hard to let you go. I love you Lisa Marie and one day we will meet again. So long sweet girl and rest high on that mountain.

“ Lisa, I was just thinking yesterday how incredibly proud your Dad was the day you were born. Fast forward a "few" years to the PW fair and how proud we all were of your barrel racing skills. I remember how excited you were to be pregnant with Jackson and our many conversations throughout the pregnancy and how proud you were of Payton. Just know you are loved! Your laugh and kind heart will forever be remembered. RIP Pretty girl....we got it from here!
