“Mary, I've been out of town and am just catching up on the papers. I'm sorry I don't have your address or email. This way seems a bit impersonal. Sorry for your loss! We only have one mom and the loss is different than any other we'll ever experience. My first thoughts, when I saw it in the paper, were of the weekend we "traveled" to your home and the newspaper your mom had waiting for us when we got up the next morning. Email me if you can. I'd love to catch up with you. Cathy

“Mary and family... So sorry to hear of your loss. I remember your mom when she lived near the radio station at Hawkinstown, Va. She was such a happy lady and always laughing. My sympathy to you and all the families. God Bless all of you!
