“ So, so sad to hear of Sal's passing. I worked at The White House with Sal for years. I haven't seen him probably since he retired, but there was always a place in my heart for him and I thought about him often. He always had us in stitches; always so funny and I know everyone at work loved him, as I did. How could you help not love the guy? He was Sal!!! My deepest condolences to the whole family.
