“ Carol & Jamey, I'm so sorry to hear about Buddy. We didn't get to see each other very often over the years, but always remember him as being kind and friendly and always enjoyed seeing him at family gatherings. I know he will be missed. My thoughts and prayers are with you at this difficult time.

“ Buddy's mother (Aunt Vena (Mowry) Zirk and my mom, Pauline (Mowry) Bryan were sisters so our families spent a lot of time together. In fact, we lived side by side when our dads worked for the B&O Railroad and when Buddy was born. We were very close to this family for a lot of years. I remember Buddy as always being a gentle person who was well liked. Our sincere sympathy to his family and our hope that in the years that follow, the many memories of him will bring you great joy as you remember your wonderful times together. Warmly, Loberta (Bryan) Staley and hubby Harold
