Martha Anne Mathis Kennedy of Woodstock, VA, passed away peacefully in her home surrounded by her family on Tuesday, June 30, 2020.

Martha Anne was born in Lawrenceburg, TN on November 30, 1936 to the late Huford and Bertha Mathis. In her hometown she met Randy Kennedy and their love soared. Married in 1953, Martha Anne and Randy have been inseparable ever since.

Martha Anne was instrumental in community affairs at the schools all while raising her four children. Being involved in the children's' lives gave her great joy and love. Her influence extended far beyond her own children, as their friends were always welcome in her home.

A devoted wife and mother, she was a member of the Church of Christ.

Martha Anne made sure her kids had a strong foundation of Church, Religion, and the teachings of the Bible. Her devotion to the Lord showed in her desire for her children to be good citizens, and she constantly gave back to all.

Martha Anne was also a devoted volunteer for Shen Paco for many years.

Martha Anne is survived by her husband Randy, her daughters Randa Anne Kennedy (Lester Wetzel), Katrina Karoline Stroop (Doug Stroop), and her sons Randall Kennedy Jr. (Abbe Kennedy) and Bret Mathis Kennedy (Cathy Kennedy).

“ *Martha Ann was a beautiful Christian lady. She was a mentor to many of us. We were taking an exercise class together one time and the instructor had the nerve to tell us if we moved our bodies as much as our mouth we'd get better results. Loved her. “ Martha was one sweet lady. She always said hi and ask how you were doing. She would ask if there was anything she could do for you. She was a good mother-wife-grand mother and best friend anyone could ask for. One memory I will always remember is one year for my birthday she was in Florida, and called me on the phone to say happy birthday. She has left so many memories to family and friends. Now she is in a better place and watching over family-like she always did here on earth. I love you Martha and hope to see ya one day-I will never forget you.
