

Mary Myers Showalter

April 3, 2013

Mary Ellen Myers Showalter died April 2, 2013, at the Blue Ridge Hospice in Winchester, Virginia, after an extended illness. Mrs. Showalter was a dancer and dance teacher in the early 1950s and also ran her own dance studio in Woodstock for a short time. Later, she went to work for the Fairfax County school system, retiring in 1984. She previously lived in Herndon, Virginia, and Hurricane, West Virginia, before returning in 1996 to the farm in Toms Brook where she grew up. She was preceded in death by her sister, Anna Lee Myers Wilson, who passed away in 2009, and her brother, Edgar A. Myers, who passed away in 2010. Mrs. Showalter was born in Toms Brook on December 24, 1933, the daughter of the late John A. and Mary V. Myers. Mrs. Showalter is survived by her husband of 60 years, Jack Showalter of Toms Brook; daughter, Debbie Brown of Laurel, Maryland, son, Greg Showalter of Toms Brook, and grandson, Frank Showalter of Basye. Burial will be at St. John's United Church of Christ Cemetery near Toms Brook, Virginia, April 5 at 11:00 a.m. A graveside service will be conducted by Pastor Joe Fleming of St. Johns. In lieu of flowers, please send contributions in memory of Mary Ellen Showalter, with a designation to the Dr. Linda Duska Research Fund to University of Virginia Health Foundation, P.O. Box 400807, Charlottesville, Virginia, 22904-4807. Contributions may also be made in memory of Mrs. Showalter to Blue Ridge Hospice, 333 W. Cork Street, Winchester, Virginia, 22601.
