“ Nancy, Patty and family, I was so saddened to hear Momma Vann had passed away. She was such a dear lady and will certainly be missed. She sure put up with alot from the 3 of us! Please know that you are all in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. She may no longer be with us but the memories can never be erased. Lots of love ...Trish

“ Dear Family, Your Mother was a dear and caring person. She was such a blessing to my Dad, Ira, when he needed someone. I will never forget how loving and devoted she was to him, whether he was well or sick. We spent some precious times together during good times and bad times. We will see them again some day in a heavenly place more glorious then we can ever imagine. May God Bless all of you and give you peace until that day comes. Carol & Keith Griffith
