

Mary Lamma Stoneking

December 24, 2012

Mary Lamma Stoneking, formerly of 414 South Main Street in Woodstock Virginia, and more recently of the Virginia Mennonite Retirement Community in Harrisonburg Virginia, and then the Life Care Center in New Market, Virginia passed on December 22nd 2012. She was 80 years old. Mary was born December 16, 1932 to the late Gilbert and Mazie Lamma in Jerome, Virginia. She attended Jerome Elementary School and graduated from Triplett High School in 1950. She married the late Russell M. Stoneking on May 25, 1954. The Stoneking's moved to various assignments during Russell's 20 years in the United States Air Force. They lived in Winchester, Virginia before retiring to Woodstock, Virginia in 1989. Mary was a homemaker, mother, and active member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Jerome Virginia. Mary is survived by one brother, Guy C. Lamma, 3 children, Russell Stoneking, Cindy Shore, and Clinton Stoneking, and seven grandchildren. She was preceded in death by a granddaughter. The family will receive visitors on Thursday, December 27, 2012 from 6 to 8 PM at the Dellinger Funeral Home in Woodstock, Virginia. Service and burial will be on Friday, December 28, 2012, 2:00 PM at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Jerome Virginia, officiated by Reverends William R. Ballance Jr. and James Baseler. Contributions to the World Hunger Fund of the Lutheran Church in America are requested in lieu of flowers at this link. <http://www.elca.org/Our-Faith-In-Action/Responding-to-the-World/ELCA-World-Hunger.aspx>