

Mary Elizabeth Steger Trindal

September 1, 1927 - December 31, 2013

Mary Elizabeth Steger Trindal, 86, wife of Wesley Steele Trindal, passed away on the 31st of December 2013 at Harrisonburg, Virginia.

Mary Elizabeth, or Bettie, was born on the 1st of September 1927 at Alexandria, Virginia. She was the daughter of Emanuel Joseph and Laura Mary Steger. She is survived by her husband; son Joseph William; daughter-in-law Dr. Cassandra Mannhardt; grandchildren Maria, Alexander and Thomas; great-granddaughter Hannah; great nephew Lyall Steger, and four great nieces, Ann, Martha, Audrey and Catherine.

Among her abundant life accomplishments, she is best known as the author of Mary Surratt: An American Tragedy. She and her husband traveled widely while she promoted the book on radio, television and before live audiences. Her articles on various subjects have appeared in U.S., Belgium and British publications. Bettie was a member of the National League of American Pen Women, Valley Educational Center for the Creative Arts and an associate member of the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

Bettie's funeral service will be held Saturday, January 4, 2014 at 3:00 p.m. at Valley Funeral Services, 14116 South Middle Road (Bowman's Crossing), Edinburg, Virginia 22824 by Pastor Bruce Kipps. Family will receive friends one hour (2:00 to 3:00 p.m.) before her funeral service. After the funeral service, Bettie's interment will be held at Cedarwood Cemetery, Edinburg, Virginia.

Bettie and her family requests that memorial contributions be made in the memory of Mary Elizabeth Trindal to the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (ASPCA) [www.asPCA.org – Memorial Gift, choose Card Type – Mail Paper Card for memorial contributions] or to the charity of your choice.

Her family is comforted that she rests in eternal peace and infinite spiritual health.
