“ Please forgive me for sending my condolences so late, but I know Mary will stay in my heart forever and she knows how much I love and will miss her. The visits I had to her home in Woodstock over the years will be memories I will cherish forever and the times looking at all her beautiful flowers or sitting out on her patio and she always would have something special for me to eat. We would exchange stories about my dad, Charlie Whitfield, and laugh over the many antics he had and we still loved him! I know he loved Mary. She was a wonderful and caring person and we all were lucky to have known her.

“ I first met Mary in 1970. She welcomed me with a sweet, warm heart to the Woodstock Christian Church. I was blessed to work with two of her grandsons - Corey and Colbey Ryman at the Woodstock Sheetz. She was a woman with a warm, loving, caring heart. She will be deeply miss by so many of us. She was a beautiful woman both inside and out.
