“ I just found out today Maxine passed away. I met her 4 years ago in another nursing home. We were roommates. She was one of the happiest persons I have ever met. She was in so much pain but did everything to make me laugh. When I was dismissed we both cried because we found out we became the best of friends in 4 weeks. I laughed so much those weeks. We talked on the phone to stay in touch. Thank you Maxine for being a friend and I am a better person when God brought us to meet. Bless you dear friend and I will see you in heaven. Make sure you have the peaches, ice cream and candy ready. Oh don't forget to watch the election! Love you!
