“ My grandmother was the most sweetest hardworking loving lady you ever would want to meet. She never wanted to see anyone without or hungry she always loved cooking and waiting on anyone who would let her. The greatest gift she could ever give me was taking my sister and I to church. She would pick us up every Sunday but most of the time we were already at her house. If it weren't for gma there is a chance I never would have known about god, forgiveness and the Bible. Because of her I got to experience some of the greatest times in my childhood. Christmas plays, church camps, parade floats, I could go on for ever. She was right by my side when I was giving birth to my daughter at the age of 16 never judging me at all. And from that day foward she gave so much love to Keeyanna. Not only her but all her grandkids. She even made sure my daughter and my nephew knew god as well. I have so much great things to say about her. She was the most amazing person you've ever met. And anyone who was blessed to meet her has always said she left an everlasting impression on them. I hope I can be half the grandmother she was and pass on some of the knowledge she gave me. You will forever be missed I will do my best to tell lillyanna all about you and she will know that you loved her just as much as you loved all of us. Love you forever grandma.
