“ Melissa, you were able to capture friends where ever you went. I remember meeting you at Edinburg Aileen back in the early 80's. Your humble and kind words forever linger in my mind. I know God put you here to touch lives in a way that brought glory to him. May you fly high as you enter a new chapter of life by the seat of our Lord and Savior.

“ Mel...such a wonderful and loving friend! Our camping trips were always so much fun. I will never forget those times. I remember one morning it was so cold. I came into your camper to say good morning and you patted the side of the bed and said come in and get warm. We sat there for awhile just talking and laughing. I will miss you!

“ I was sadden to hear about Melissa's passing. I worked with her many years ago and she was a delightful person to be around. She was friendly, funny and always had time to help someone who needed help with something. Melissa always talked about her boys. She will be greatly missed by many. Her memory will always be with you.
