“ Rest in peace, Michael Haines.

No one can know the amount of suffering you quietly endured over the past twenty or thirty years as your body weakened and all the things you once enjoyed doing were slowly rendered impossible and everyday tasks became more and more difficult. It was heart wrenching to witness and I hope you have finally found peace and your spirit is flying free.

“ I came to love Mike during the past three years, both as part of Sunrise Café where I first met Mike, and then at First Baptist Church in Woodstock. Mike was tender hearted even though he struggled with the ravages of diabetes. May Mike rest in peace !!
