“ Things are not the same without you. I'll miss ya. I wish I known you guys along time ago. Kills me that I never got the opportunity to meet ya face to face. But we will always look after Becky and be there for her. I consider you guys as my family. And family's stick together no matter what. I know we have never met face to face. But for what I under stand you guys are awesome people and I am glad I get the opportunity to say that. I am honored to be your friend. God bless you and god bless Becky and you guys are always in my prayers and never forget ya.
