“ Mike was the best neighbor I have ever had. I moved across the street from them when I bought my first house and Michelle and him were so welcoming. He showed me what a good neighbor is and when I moved to the neighborhood I live in now, I aimed to model what he showed me. As a first time homeowner, I didn't know anything about taking care of a house. Mike would come over and give me a hand anytime he saw me struggling. He showed me how to put siding back on, showed me how to fix trim that dogs ate lol and many other things. When I got my first motorcycle he was there when I wanted to make modifications. Best of all was sitting with him on his porch while he told stories of his past adventures. He was also a great example of loving your wife. Anytime spent with him and it would become very evident that he loves Michelle so very much. It was also very easy to tell that he loved his kids both girls and boys very much and was extremely proud of them. He will be greatly missed!
