“ I was deeply saddened by the passing of Nan... She was a wonderful neighbor and activist in Edinburg... My husband was so pleased to dress as an elf to enchant her grandchildren when they visited... Please know I will never forget her kindness and especially her endearing smile... She will be missed forever.... Rest in peace, Nan. Bobbie Sainz - Edinburg

“ I've known Nan since I was a 4-year-old little girl living across the street in our old neighborhood. Back then she was Mrs. Wentzel to me. Her daughter Wendy has been my life-long best friend. After my dad passed away just before I turned 5, Nan became sort of a surrogate mom to me. I loved all the good times I had over at the Wentzel house, and later on in life, Nan Hilton's house. Wherever she was seemed like my happy place. I had my best friend Wendy, and Nan - always there to listen and impart her motherly wisdom. I felt like I could tell her anything. I trusted her and loved her always throughout my formative years and into adulthood. Wendy, Bev, and Carl - thank you for sharing your Mom with me. 💜 I will miss her always.

“ I will never forget the very first time I met the Wentzel (Nan Hilton and Family) Spring 1980. Feel certain we'd met many times before at Woodstock High School Reunions, but this time was special, since my family met at the Wentzel family home in Richmond area. The Wentzel's were all invited to my Sister's upcoming wedding that June 1980. Seems from that point on, we all made certain to keep in contact even more often. With advent of Internet, being in contact was made even easier, though face to face not so often, just checking in was easy. Missing your Mom will be tough. Always a sweet woman, full of laughter, a wonderful smile, and generous with compliments. Will be greatly missed by the Wilkins family.
