

Nancy Elizabeth "Betsy" Sullivan

November 26, 1956 - July 3, 2018

Betsy Sullivan, of Woodstock, passed away July 3, 2018 at the age of 61. A broker at Country Homes Realty in Woodstock, Betsy was a graduate of The Connelly School of the Holy Child in Potomac, Maryland and earned her BA from Duke University, North Carolina. After working in alumni relations, marketing and sales, she joined her mother's business in Woodstock, fondly known as "The Old House Ladies". Betsy loved the Shenandoah Valley, her home for more than 25 years. Betsy was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, the daughter of (deceased) John L. Sullivan Jr. and (deceased) Nancy Runyan Sullivan.

She is survived by her step-mother, Barbara Boyle Sullivan; her sister, Katherine J. Sullivan (Alain McNamara); and brother, Thomas Edward (Ted) Sullivan (Olga Sullivan). Her older brother, John L. Sullivan III (Nathalie B. Sullivan, Andrea Kaufman), died in 2017. She was a beloved aunt to her five nieces and a nephew.

Memorial service to be announced at a later date.

Contributions can be made in Betsy's name to Response Shelter in Woodstock.

“ We are saddened to hear about Betsy's passing. She sold us our home in Black Bear in 2003. We have remained friends over the years and she always had a pleasant smile and friendly face when we were in town. She is a treasure that will be sorely missed. Love to her family.

“ We were shocked to hear of Betsy's death. She was our realtor and friend. Seeing the angel on the door of Country Homes brings her untimely passing into focus. We enjoyed her sense of humor and she always made time to chat if you dropped by. We'll miss seeing her and wish her peace.

“ We met Betsey is 1999 when we bought our home in Edinburg, VA. She was a wonderful person with a kind heart and great sense of humor. I stayed in touch with Betsey until about a year ago. So sorry to hear of her passing. She will be missed.
