The staff at Heishman Funeral Home Inc. send condolences to the family of Nancy Ruth Anglin Wolford.

Nancy Ruth Anglin Wolford, 76, of Edinburg, passed away Monday, November 8, 2021, at Winchester Medical Center from COVID-19. A memorial service will be held Saturday, November 13 at 2:00 PM with a family gathering one hour prior, at Saumsville Christian Church. Pastor Joe Fleming will officiate. Mrs. Wolford was born December 14, 1944, in Arlington, daughter of the late Murray Edson Anglin and Bernice Marie McGhee Anglin. She formerly worked at Wrangler, Shenandoah Knitting Mills, and Maxway. She was a member of Saumsville Christian Church and active in the Christian Women's Fellowship. She was preceded in death by her husband of 40 years, Danny Wolford whom she married on January 17, 1963.

She is survived by her daughter, Cherie Marie Heishman and husband Harold of Edinburg; son, Stoney Lee Wolford of Edinburg; foster daughter, Heather Maxine Stanley Jones of Edinburg; sisters and brothers, John Anglin (Vivian) of Missouri, Ron Anglin (Kathy) of Arizona, David Anglin (Jennie) of Haymarket, Martie Hamilton (Bill, deceased) of Fredericksburg, Walter Anglin-deceased, and Wanda Buettner (Raymond) of Falls Church; four grandchildren, Emily Heishman, Jacob Heishman, Kirsten Sanders, and Alyssa Stanley and three great grandchildren.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that you send a card or two to a loved one.

Nancy loved sending and received cards and the family thinks that would be a great way to celebrate her.

Nancy was such a crafty and talented woman who was a well-known seamstress. She enjoyed making beautiful, elaborate dresses and gifts for family and friends. She had many other hobbies as well; she enjoyed roller skating which is where she met her late husband Danny, bowling with her family, and she was a great baker who made a lot of birthday cakes for family.
