“ Knowing Newt for over 30 years has been a great privilege in my life. My admiration and respect for him is deep and lasting. His kindness, thoughtfulness and pragmatic approach to life was a lesson to me and all who knew him. A caring and loving family man, I take solace in the fact that he spent his last days and will be resting now in the place he wanted to be, here in the Shenandoah Valley surrounded by his beloved wife Clara, his children, his grandchildren and great grandchildren. Newt, we will all miss you
