“ I will always remember my times at his house with Doris, Aunt Hannah and Uncle Melvin. Such a nice man with beautiful blue eyes. He and Uncle Melvin pulled leeches off me after swimming in the run. Lots of good memories. My deepest sympathy to the family.

“ Norman was a wonderful man. He will be missed. Aunt Norma was waiting for him in heaven as well as precious Pauline and Fannie. Look forward to seeing them all before long. Come Lord Jesus Come Quickly.

“ Google Docs by Google, Inc My name is Margart Watson Smith, and I'm Norman Beedles niece. <https://appsto.re/us/qimpY.i> My mom, Ruby Watson was Normans sister, and we lived in Maryland at this time, in the very early sixties. I can remember visiting on the farm, following faithfully behind my Uncle Norman, to the barn. I was an animal lover at a very young age, as was my Uncle Norman. Of all the experiences he shared with me, the one that will always stay with me is when he taught me how to milk a cow. I love you Uncle Norman, thanks for taking the time. You were a wonderful Uncle too me. RIP
