“ Condolences to the Harpine family. I graduated with Norman and his brother Layton in 1952 from THS. I played baseball with Norman and Layton at THS. In our senior year Norman and I played several games with the New Market Rebels. Wayne Myers was our coach at THS and New Market Rebels that summer. In Front Royal I believe at the Bing Crosby Stadium Norman hit a home run over left field fence only thing wrong it was about 2 feet foul don't remember what he did after that. I remember the Harpine brother fondly, they will be missed by family and friends. Eddie Wood in Woodstock
