

Olin F. Sigler

June 18, 2015

Olin F. Sigler, 88 of Mt. Jackson, died Saturday, June 13, 2015 at Martinsburg V. A. Medical Center in Martinsburg, WVA. Mr. Sigler was born March 5, 1927 in Shenandoah County, son of the late Eugene William and Mary Corinne Zirkle Sigler. He served in the United States Navy during W.W. II He was a former employee of Rockingham Poultry in Broadway and had been an employee for 15 years at Mt. Jackson Food Lion. He was married June 17, 1949 to Mary F. Sigler who preceded him in death September 22, 2002. He is survived by a daughter, Linda Day and her husband Stuart of Roanoke; two sons, Terry Sigler and his wife Karen of Edinburg and Ricky Sigler and his wife Freda of Mt. Jackson; a brother, Dudley Sigler of Colorado Springs, Colorado; two sisters, Betty Hansberger and her husband Leonard of Tupelo, Mississippi and May Green and her husband William of Edinburg; three grandchildren, Phillip Sigler, Donna Pattie and Aaron Sigler; and two great grandchildren, Tyler Pattie and Madison Pattie. He was preceded in death by a sister, Ruth Getz. Olin was a very out-going person, especially after he had started working at Food Lion. He loved to laugh and if he liked some one, he would ""pick"" on them to no end, all in jest. As he became more ill, he had to stop working but didn't give up hope of going back to work when he felt better. He thoroughly enjoyed working at Food Lion and missed seeing his fellow employees, his friends and the customers, regulars and new people, also. The family will receive friends Wednesday, June 17, 2015 from 7 to 8 p.m. at the Dellinger Funeral Home in Mt. Jackson. Graveside services will be Monday, June 22, 2015 at 2 p.m. at the Mt. Jackson Cemetery with the Rev. Nathan Robinson officiating Memorial contributions may be made to your favorite charity.
